

STATEMENT ON THE NON-PROFIT NATURE OF THE EXTUBE STUDY

The EXTUBE Study: EXtubation related complications - an international observational study To Understand the impact and BEst practices in the operating room and intensive care unit

International, multicentre, prospective observational point prevalence study

I, Matteo Parotto, Principal Investigator of the EXTUBE Study, DECLARE THAT

the Promoter of the study is University Health Network, data relating to the experimentation, its execution and its results belong to the Promoter, and they can be used only with the approval by the Promoter; the EXTUBE Study is an observational study which aims to evaluate the incidence, risk factors, and outcomes of extubation-related complications and describing clinical practices related to extubation;
the EXTUBE Study is aimed at improving medical knowledge and clinical practice; the EXTUBE Study IS NOT aimed at the industrial development of drugs or instruments and in any case the EXTUBE Study IS NOT aimed at profit.

Signature: Matteo Parotto
Matteo Parotto (Sep 18, 2024 13:07 EDT)

Email: matteo.parotto@uhn.ca

Matteo Parotto MD

Signature

Date

Principal Investigator and Sponsor Head of Interdepartmental Centre for Critical Care Medicine
Department of Anesthesia
Toronto General Hospital